Pal-O-Mine Equestrian, Inc.

2024 ANNUAL REPORT

About Pal-O-Mine

Pal-O-Mine Equestrian was founded in 1995 as a therapeutic horseback riding program for individuals with disabilities and other vulnerable populations. Our mission is to provide a comprehensive therapeutic equine program using horses to facilitate growth, learning and healing. Our populations include children and adults with disabilities, those who have been abused or neglected, the military and the impoverished.

2024 Accomplishments Include:

- Awarded Platinum Level Transparency by Candid for the 3rd year in a row
- Accredited by the Better Business Bureau (BBB) for the 4th year in a row
- Completed our $3 million Expansion Campaign
- Became one of 5 partners in the United Way's Mission United
- Seven-time winner of the Bethpage Best of Long Island for Best Horseback Riding Facility
- Provided EAL services to incarcerated female youth
- Partnered with Sesame Workshop on our Barnyard Buddies early childhood learning program
- Provided 6 visits with our equines to local assisted living centers, hospitals and VA center
- Successfully implemented 4 new programs
- Hosted 4 Wellness Retreats
- Began collaborations with the NYPD Equestrian Club to provide EAS to inner-city youth
- Our new fundraiser, Winter Wonderland, was a huge success
